

Adlene N. Harrison

November 19, 1923 - February 19, 2022

Adlene N. Harrison passed peacefully at home on February 19, 2022, at the age of 98, surrounded by her family. She was a Dallas native who lived an incredible life of public service. Her priorities were her family, friends, Temple Emanu-El, and her beloved City of Dallas. Adlene was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Maurice. She is survived by her daughter Jane, her nieces and nephews; Carolyn and Jack Stone, Nancy Nathanson (Steve), Paul Nathanson (Shari), Char and Bob Sigman, Rob Stein (Ellen), Louis Stein (Sharon), and David Stein. She is also survived by a multitude of close friends and extended family members who she counseled and mentored. Services will be held on Tuesday February 22, 2022 at Temple Emanu-El at 1:00 PM. Virtual attendance via Zoom <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/88479133848>. There will be a virtual interactive Minyan at 5:30 PM. <https://us06web.zoom.us/j/85308750075> Those wishing to remember her life may make a donation to: Temple Emanu-El, Planned Parenthood, or the charity of your choice. Honorary Pallbearers include: Roger Andres, George Kao, Martin Golman, Larry Golman, Kenneth Klein, The Honorable Michael Rawlings, Doug Reader, Buddy Rosenthal, John Tatum, Thomas Taylor, and Brian Zweig.

Tribute Wall

“ With great admiration and love

---

Jeanne Milligan - February 20, 2022 at 03:36 PM