

Ann Brudno

February 23, 1934 - September 10, 2020

Ann Brudno, 86, passed away on September 10, 2020 in Houston, Texas.

Born in Johannesburg, South Africa, Ann met Raymond, the love of her life on a trip to America with her mother. Six months after their blind date, they married and she moved to the United States. They enjoyed 64 beautiful years during which they travelled the world. She charmed everyone she met with her accent, smile and positive outlook.

She is survived by her spouse, Raymond, daughters, Jillian and Debra along with their spouses, her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Emanuel Memorial Park with Rabbi Sholklopper of Congregation Beth El officiating. Due to Covid restrictions, the service will be for immediate family only.

Memorial donations may be made to American Cancer Society or American Friends of Magen David Adom. The family thanks her caregivers and the Varco Hospice group for their tender care.

Tribute Wall

DE

“ You are in Gods world now. Be free and enjoy. Your family, the loves of your life, will be cared for in your absence.

Debra - September 14, 2020 at 09:10 AM