

Dena Sachs

August 3, 1940 - January 19, 2018

Dena Lucille Sachs, 77, passed away Friday, January 19, 2018 at Grace Care Center of Cypress in Houston.

She leaves behind her son, Adam Sachs, her daughter-in-law, Jennifer Sachs, five grandchildren and many friends.

She was born in New York City to Harry and Yetta (Gershun) Wilner. Dena grew up in Hempstead on Long Island. She attended Hofstra University and after graduating with bachelor's degree in education, she taught elementary school in New York.

After moving to Houston, she married Julian Sachs and continued to work as a substitute teacher and as a travel agent. She later went on to teach full-time again at Woodrow Wilson Elementary in Houston.

She married Harris Pesses and retired to spend many years traveling, going on cruises and showing their award winning birds at shows.

Tribute Wall

BS

“ Our deepest sympathies and condolences to your family. Ya'll are in our thoughts and prayers.

Brian, Jamie, & Connor Sulla - January 27, 2018 at 12:02 PM