Dov Fischman Z”L

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Dov Fischman, a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, who left us on January 6, 2025. Dov was born in Tel Aviv, Israel and grew up in Brooklyn, NY, before moving to Dallas, TX in 1979, where he built a life full of love, hard work, and passion for his family and community.

For over 40 years, Dov worked in the jewelry business, earning a reputation for his dedication, expertise, and integrity. He was known for his unwavering commitment to his work, but it was his devotion to his loved ones that defined him. A wonderful husband to his wife, Ilana, a proud father to his children Gallit and Marc, an adoring grandfather to Max, Hannah, and Liam, an amazing uncle to his nieces and nephews and a dedicated brother to Ben, Dov cherished his family above all else.

Dov had a deep love for Israel, always carrying the dream of one day returning to the land he held dear in his heart. He enjoyed a rich and active life, with a passion for playing soccer and racquetball. His zest for life and his warm, caring nature will be missed by all who knew him.

Dov’s legacy of kindness, strength, and love will live on in his family and the many lives he touched throughout his remarkable journey. May his memory be a blessing to all who had the honor of knowing him.

A memorial service will be held at Agadus Achim, 7900 Scyene Road, Dallas, TX 75227 on Tuesday, January 14, 2025, at 11am, followed by a reception and Shiva at 10114 Deermont Trail Dallas TX 75243.
