

Evelyn Tyser

November 8, 1930 - February 2, 2018

Evelyn Faye Tyser, 87, passed away on Friday, February 2, 2018 at her residence at Seven Acres Jewish Senior Care Services following a lengthy illness.

She leaves her husband of 66 years, Fred Tyser, and her children, Patti Krivo and husband David, Evetta Robbins and husband Richard, and Alan Tyser. Grandchildren Ariel Krivo, Adam Robbins, Eliza Stubbs and husband Justin, and Sydney Krivo. Great grandchildren Maxwell Stubbs and Aurora Krivo, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Evelyn was born on November 8th, 1930 in New Orleans, LA. Her family soon thereafter moved to Biloxi, MS, and eventually relocated to Houston. Her parents were Rubin and Anne Finkelstein. She was predeceased by her 5 siblings, Ruby Billings, Betty Klein, Flo Gates, Joe Finkelstein, and Dot Lewis. In Houston, Evelyn began working at her mother's dress shop on Harrisburg Blvd. learning the fashion industry.

Evelyn was set up on a blind date with the love of her life, Fred Tyser. The two married in 1951, and soon thereafter opened the family business, Tyser's Fashions for Her in Westbury Square. In 1977, they relocated the dress shop to Westchase. Evelyn had a knack for understanding her customers and would let them know of merchandise she would pick out for them at the market. She and Fred routinely went to market in Dallas and New York. Evelyn was a long-time member of Congregation Emanu El. After retirement, Evelyn and Fred got the chance to travel, and had the opportunity to go to Israel, and traveled by train through Canada.
