Harold Jack Sweet, of Dallas, TX lived his 91 years with gentleness, kindness, and dignity. He passed May 5, 2020, leaving a legacy of love for his family and friends.

Harold was born on April 15, 1929, in Dallas, TX, the oldest of two boys to loving parents, Clara and Al Sweet. His early Dallas life included a happy childhood in South Dallas and Lakewood with a graduation from Woodrow HS and SMU. He then took a detour to Case Institute of Technology for his Masters in Engineering in Cleveland, OH, and then to Rhode Island for his service in the U.S. Navy. After the Korean War, he made his way home, back to his Dallas roots.

The next chapter of his life story begins with the marriage to his loving wife, Marilyn, which lasted 68 devoted years. There was nothing he wouldn't do for his "May", who will miss him dearly. He also found happiness on the golf course, reading a great novel, traveling, and tinkering in his workshop. Just as important were the bonds he maintained with his lifelong friends.

Navigating a 60-year career in the family apparel business was a testament to his strong character, honesty, and integrity. Even with this achievement, in his eyes success was the 60 years of being an amazing father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He was adored by his children, Alan and Susan Sweet, Judy and David Fried, his grandchildren, Staci and Andrew Duhan, Mandi Golman and Philip Boyd, Carlie and Garrett Laves, Haley Fried, and David Fried, his great-grandchildren, Rell, Clara, Sabrina, Marlo, Isaac, Ryn, and Silas. He was predeceased by daughter Shari Vasher (surviving son-in-law Tim Vasher), granddaughter Samantha Sweet, and brother Arnold Sweet.

A private graveside service was held at Shearith Israel Cemetery on May 7, 2020. In Harold's memory, donations may be made to the charity of your choice.
