

Helene Barcoff

April 14, 1940 - June 26, 2023

Dear Mom,

We were so lucky to share so much of our lives with you for so long, and we are going to desperately miss having you here to share the rest. You bravely and relentlessly fought so many health challenges right up until the very end, and we are grateful for every second we had together.

We owe who we are and what we have accomplished in our lives to you. You were always there to be our cheerleader in the good times and to hold our hands in the tough times. We are going to miss talking to you each day, traveling the world with you, and celebrating every holiday together.

We will forever cherish your unconditional support for your family. You were such a light in this world and an incredible force in any room you walked into. Everybody that met you absolutely adored you and felt loved by you.

You were blessed to have two precious loves in your life – Bert, our father, and Jeff, lovingly known as our Papa Jeff. We are grateful knowing that you are now joining them and giving them much needed hugs. Please give hugs to Rick and smooches to Maddie, Bumpy, and Barney too.

While you are gone physically, you live on in us and in the hearts of Chuck,

Brady, Casey, Brooks, and Gabbi.

Forever,

Tami (Barcoff) Schneider & Stacey (Barcoff) Butler

“ Camp Sabra has much to thank Helene Barcoff for. She was instrumental in connecting camp to the Dallas community and we have her to thank for our thousands of Dallas families. Helene's footprint at Sabra is vast, we would not be the Sabra we are today without her dedication. Her legacy is one of kindness and generosity. Thank you Helene, may your memory be a blessing. Our love to her family, The Camp Sabra Team

“ This lovely woman forever changed the lives of thousands of people. Many adults fondly reminisce about highschool. Then there is the Camp Sabra Family. We reminisce about camp. Helene brought Dallasites to Sabra, thus creating a positive permant change to the future of kids. Personally, she was the mom we all wanted. Welcoming, approachable, sweet, and giving. A light with a flame that will last forever. Her memory is our blessing and I wish her family and love ones Misha Berah.
