

Jane Zimmerman

October 16, 1931 - May 3, 2017

Jane White Zimmerman, age 85, passed away May 3, 2017. Jane received her RN degree in 1955 from the University of Houston and met her husband Stanley Zimmerman, M.D. at Hermann Hospital where he had his internship and residency. Thereafter, they spent the first two years of their marriage in Japan while he served his tour of duty in the United States Air Force. As their family grew, while her husband attended to his medical practice, Jane was a devoted wife and mother. She was actively involved in all of the children's activities and volunteered in public schools in the VIP program. In later life, she served as the office manager in Stephen Zimmerman's dental office for many years. Jane shared an inseparable 60 years of love, devotion and joy with her husband. Her life was a sonnet of love for her Husband, children, family and friends.

She is preceded in death by two of her children David and Paul Zimmerman, her parents, Harvey and Dimple White, and her sister Mary Doyle. She is survived by her husband Stanley Zimmerman, M.D., two of her children Susan Rosen, and Stephen Zimmerman, D.D.S., grandchildren Jennifer Jacobson (husband Scott and great granddaughter Penelope), Jeremy Rosen (wife Meghan) and Scott Cornwall.
