

Johanna Windsburg

May 19, 1937 - June 19, 2019

Johanna Windsburg was born on May 19, 1937 in Frankfurt, Germany and passed away on June 18, 2019.

At the age of 4, Johanna and her family fled Nazi Germany and came to the United States in 1941 where she lived in Bridgeport, Connecticut most of her life.

Johanna met and married the love of her life, David, at the age of 19. They lived in Connecticut until David retired and then moved on to West Palm Beach, Florida. After living in Florida for over ten years, they moved to the North Texas area to be closer to family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Isadore and Else Badmann and her husband, David. She is survived by her brother -- Henry Barron; two daughters -- Linda Tiberi and Sharon Milner; grandchildren -- John Tiberi and Jared Milner. A graveside service will be held on Friday, June 21st, at 3:00 pm at Restland Cemetery in Dallas, TX in the Mount Sinai section (very south end of the cemetery on the west side).

Tribute Wall

MJ

“ Oh Sharon, I wish I could be there to support you during this tough time! I'm unable to attend this time. I love you and you can call me anytime!!!

Marsha Johnson - June 20, 2019 at 02:56 PM