

Judy A. Becker

May 24, 1943 - June 1, 2024

No obituary found for this tribute.

Previous Events

Funeral Service

JUN 6. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (CT)

Dallas Jewish Funerals
1611 North Central Expy
Plano, TX 75075
(972) 424-1141
<http://www.dallasjewishfunerals.com>

Tribute Wall

MB

“ You are my sunshine Mommy - there are no words to adequately describe how empty my heart is... You were the epitome of love, light, grace and unconditional love, my best friend and always there for me. I love you so much, thank you God for my Mommy.

Michele Becker - July 05, 2024 at 08:14 PM

FR

“ Thinking of darling cousin/sista Judy in 100 different ways, and so sorry not to have had a chance to say goodbye although when a relationship is complete, it's included in how we always wrapped up each conversation. “Love you, Judy gal”, I would say. “Love you, sista!,” she would reply. Hard to lose someone so special, ever gracious in her speech and caring for each of us.

fran - June 20, 2024 at 05:56 AM

VS

“ Judy and I had be come best of friends. We always call each other. We talked about our families. We our medical issues and how we would be feeling sometimes. I am really going to miss her. When her daughter called though It Judy. We never got off the phone with our saying we love ❤️ each. I was sorry to hear of her death.

Vira Stanley-Brown - June 14, 2024 at 02:11 PM

EE

“ Judy and I exchanged weekly e-mails for at least 12 years every Tuesday, writing to each other between Dallas and Boston (my last e-mail from her was just a week and a half ago). She was the wonderful leader of Team Morris, watching over my great-Uncle in Preston Oaks for years (with Carole Foster, and Mike and Sheila Holt), and she was with him when he died. I would like you to know that she has been an inspiration to me in a hundred important ways, and I loved her. And I would like to say what you already know: her family was everything. I heard about Teddie's trips, saw photos and videos of grandchildren and great-grandchildren as they arrived and grew, read of various celebrations and sorrows. (Macy happens to have the exact same birthday and is the exact same age of my daughter, so Judy and I marveled about this every January 22.) I also knew about her health problems, though not about her heart, and was filled with admiration for her stoicism. I have tried to contact her family through her Facebook page, but unsuccessfully, and I hope you will be able to read this now. Starting June 1, the world will never be the same, and I cannot tell you how much I will miss her. Elissa Ely

Elissa Ely - June 07, 2024 at 02:36 PM