

Karen Abramson

March 31, 1953 - May 18, 2019

Karen Sue Abramson, 66, died suddenly on May, 18, 2019 following a brief illness.

Karen leaves her mother, Marilyn, sisters Kathy and Alana, nieces and nephews (Cheryl, Jonathon, David, Hannah, and Sydney), several aunts, cousins and many close friends, including members of this congregation.

She is preceded in death by her beloved father, Armand.

Karen was born in Louisville, KY and was raised in several locations including New York, Israel, Missouri and finally Ann Arbor, MI. She graduated from Michigan State University with a B.S. in education.

She moved to Houston to teach first grade in the Houston public school system where she taught for over 30 years. She was also a long-time Sunday School teacher. Despite her own physical disabilities, Karen spent much of her free time as an avid and enthusiastic volunteer in Jewish social services.

Karen was devoted to the study of Judaism and living a rich Jewish life.

Karen loved spending time with family, playing word games, playing cards with friends and other social activities in her living community.

Karen inspired her family and friends by her kindness, openness and loving acceptance of everyone who crossed her path.

In lieu of flowers, donations could be made to the Turner's Syndrome Society of the United States and to the Cochlear Implant Awareness Foundation.

Tribute Wall

LM

“Karen Abramson was a classmate in high school, and invariably upbeat and thoughtful, a refreshing combination of character qualities. I particularly admired her self-confidence and ability to find the positive in just about all situations. Thank you, Karen, for your example of a full and well-lived life.

Lin Mohler - March 26, 2022 at 04:19 PM