“ I had the privilege of befriending Lynne after becoming her caregiver. The first day I showed up to her door and complimented her puppy, Paws, she instantly liked me! She LOVED Paws. We had so many wonderful memories. Tons of food dates, lots of Diet Coke and sharing a love of books. She enjoyed telling me about her parents and how proud she was of her children and grandchildren. She spoken often of her friend, Dot. I was very saddened when our visits became less and I prayed for her often. I will miss you my dear friend! “Back atcha lady” ❤️

“ Cousin Lynne was a special woman as is her family. They took me in for several weeks in 1975 after my father passed and it was a welcome respite during a difficult time in my life. May her memory be a blessing. Matt Grubman
