

Marcella Serota

January 30, 1932 - May 12, 2016

Marcella Zelda Serota passed away peacefully Thursday, May 12, 2016 at the age of 84. She is survived by her devoted husband, Harry Harold Serota. Harry & Marcie were like salt and pepper; always together, blessed with 65 years of marriage and a life full of love and happiness. Marcie had two children; Shelly Gardner married to Edward Gardner, Larry Serota and his late wife Shelly Chadwin Serota. Marcie had four grandchildren, Erica Zatzkin, married to Brian Zatzkin, Brooke Heinsohn, married to Nathan Heinsohn, Jared Serota, and Jason Serota. She also had one great grandson, Sebastian Zatzkin.

Marcie was born and raised in Philadelphia, PA in 1932, the youngest of seven brothers and sisters. She graduated from Olney High School and then went to work as a bid reporter for the Naval Installation in Philadelphia. She later worked as a teacher's aide when her grandchildren went to school. Marcie was constantly involved with her grandchildren and frequently drove carpool on their field trips, and enthusiastically cheered them on at their special events. When her husband Harry retired they moved to Texas to be near their children and grandchildren.

Marcie's entire life was spent surrounded by her family and friends. What made her truly special was her ability to light up a room when she walked in. She was loved for her quick wit and tendency to put a smile on everyone's face. She was a beautiful person inside and out, impeccably dressed for any occasion in her signature scarf and heels. She will be deeply missed.
