

Nancy Rosen Huckle

December 8, 1947 - October 30, 2022

Nancy Ellen Rosen Huckle passed away on October 30, 2022. She was born on December 8, 1947, to Nathan and Ruth (Witebsky) Rosen. Nancy grew up in Dallas, Texas with her siblings, Susan, Michael, and Philip and had a very happy and loving childhood. Nancy graduated from Hillcrest High School in 1965 and attended the University of Houston. She married her first husband and moved to Houston, Texas where her daughter, Lauren Beth was born in 1969.

Nancy Huckle had a gift for recruiting and shared her knowledge as a mentor and employer with hundreds of people throughout her career, impacting the lives of so many for the better. She was a force in the recruiting industry, shattering the glass ceiling as a female executive and was very successful. Nancy founded the human resources firm, Hunter and Sage, a boutique head hunting firm focused on Human Resources and remained there until she retired.

Those that knew Nancy could attest that she was a wonderful friend, who would help whenever needed. She loved her family and was very close with her brothers and sister. Nancy Huckle is survived by her daughter Lauren; her granddaughters, Nicole and Erin Johnson; and her brother Philip, nephew Brian Rosen, niece Shayna Sanborn, husband Jeff and grandnieces, Natalie Taibel and Riley Sanborn, Matthew Sanborn and Amber Sanborn. She is predeceased by her parents, Nathan, and Ruth; her sister, Linda; and twins' brother, Michael, and sister Susan, all of blessed memory.
