“ Dear Steve, we are very saddened for the loss of your beloved Lee. Our deepest condolences for you and for your family. We know how painful it is for you. Having lost someone is a difficult moment of life but don't forget that you have good friends that will always be there to console you. May God provide you the strength you need to cope with this difficult situation. We will always remember Lee and her kindness and passion in life. We will be praying for her as she is now in a calm and peaceful place. Our prayers are also with you and your family.

Dear Steven. Lee has been on my mind in recent days. She was so special to me and indeed to all who knew her. Hoping that you are doing well. Please do not hesitate if there is anything I can do or if you would like to talk. One never knows the twists and turns that life takes. I'm still in Dallas and single now, having divorced Shelly many years ago. My kids are si friendly up. Jason is 52 single and lives close by. Mandy is almost 50 And lives in San Antonio with her 3 daughters who are teenagers. How is that possible??? Lee had the most amazing perspective on life and that's why I adored her. I'm 80 and living in a nursing home, recovering from brain surgery for benign tumors. I feel blessed about that. I have lost some memory but gratefully not Lee of which I am grateful.

Do you still have the electronics business in Plano? Hoping you are well and at peace. May Lee's memory be for a blessing and may she rest in peace.

Fondly. Elaine Soven

Oh. Is there a gravesite here I could visit? Shelly passed away in 2009 from lung cancer. Thinking of you!
