

Paul Rifkin

March 20, 1928 - February 21, 2023

Paul Rifkin passed away on Tuesday, February 21. He was preceded in death by his parents Harry Rifkin and Miriam Kavior Rifkin, and by his brother, Ben Rifkin.

Paul is survived by his wife of 74 years, Phyllis, and sons Bob (Debbie), Bill (Susan), Ed (Deby) and Don (Melissa). He is also survived by eight grandchildren, Kate (Greg), Kenneth (Jaime), Brian (Lauranne), Michael, Dany, Gabe, Moses, and Ezra, and one great-grandchild, Corey Lynn.

Paul was born in Omaha, Nebraska on March 20, 1928. Paul and Phyllis Kirshenbaum met and fell in love as teenagers. The only year they were apart was when Paul served in occupied Japan while in the army after World War II. Paul and Phyllis were married on December 26, 1948.

Paul graduated from Omaha University in 1951 with a bachelor's degree in business and engineering. He spent most of his career in the heating, ventilating, and air conditioning (HVAC) industry. He and Phyllis lived in Omaha until 1972. Paul was transferred to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where they lived for 12 years. He and Phyllis moved to Dallas, Texas in 1984.

Paul was a kind man, devoted to his family, who went through life with good intentions and goodwill to all he met along the way.

Memorials may be made to Dallas Jewish War Veterans, Congregation Beth Torah, or the charity of your choice.
