

Robbie "Rob" Armand Mires

November 21, 1969 - February 13, 2026

Robbie "Rob" Mires was born to Andre Neissem Mires and Shirley Ann Mires (née Torontow) in San Antonio, Texas, on November 21, 1969, and died on February 13, 2026. His mother, older sister Deborah ("Debbie"), wife, and sons survive him.

In 1998, Rob graduated from the University of North Texas with a degree in Criminal Justice. That degree took him to a career that included recruiting for Ticketmaster, working for a Las Vegas casino, administering driving tests for the states of Nevada and Texas, and finally to handling aspects of auditing and compliance for large public companies like Deloitte and KPMG.

Rob married Jodi Kaplan on November 12, 2006, and they had two wonderful sons, Gabriel ("Gabe") and Elijah ("Eli"). Both sons share Rob's passion for Star Wars, and Gabe also has Rob's love of heavy metal music.

The family has had many adventures over the years. Together, they have enjoyed Disney World, hockey games, and concerts. Rob has always supported the boys' interests, from Mickey Mouse to lacrosse. Rob and Jodi have also welcomed several beloved "fur babies" into the family, with sweet Belle as the current puppy.

Rob was direct, unflinching, and able to see the humor in every situation

(even though he might add some “special words”). He had grit. Rob survived four years with glioblastoma.

Rob’s greatest love has always been for his family. He and Jodi have celebrated having strong-willed sons who care deeply about justice and friendship. He will be greatly missed.
