DUE TO CORONA VIRUS RESTRICTIONS, THE FAMILY WILL HAVE A PRIVATE SERVICE. PLEASE FEEL FREE TO LEAVE AN ONLINE CONDOLENCE OR REACH OUT BY PHONE TO SHOW YOUR LOVE AND SUPPORT DURING THIS TIME.

Ronald Burg passed away peacefully, surrounded by loving family members. Ronald is survived by son Michael Burg and wife Jean, daughter Pamela Burg, and daughter Meryl Wayne and husband Steven Wayne. Ronald had four granddaughters: Sarah Siminic (husband Tim Siminic), Alexandra Burg, Melissa Wayne, and Elyse Wayne. Ronald also had a great-grandson, Dylan Siminic.

Ronnie never met a stranger! He was always full of jokes, even ones his loving family members had heard many times! His joy was so contagious that you couldn't help but laugh with him, as that was his one goal in life: to make those around him happy.

His great love, Carole Burg, passed away on January 28, 2019. Married 63 years, Ronnie said that he took one look at her on their first date and knew they'd be together forever. And they will be.

Ronnie spent his professional career in the designer ladies shoe business. He moved his family from New York to Dallas in the 1960's with the opening of Northpark Mall to manage the I.Miller shoe store, and became President of the Northpark Merchants Association. He then opened two locations of shoe stores called "Shoe Finds" in North Dallas. His wife and daughters were not only lucky to have him as a husband & dad, but lucky to have a husband & dad who brought home the most gorgeous shoes!

He was a true "mensch" in every sense of the word. His love for his family knew no bounds, and he will be extremely missed.
