ROSE KAISER BRAUNFELD

Rose Kaiser Braunfeld, beloved mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt and friend, passed away peacefully on July 8, 2015 in Houston, Texas. Rose was born in New York City on August 23, 1916 and lived most of her life in Bethpage, New York and Delray Beach, Florida until coming to Houston at the age of 95. She was one of three children born to the late Samuel and Sara Kaiser. Rose was married to Harold Braunfeld and together they had two sons, Ronald and Dennis, and a daughter, Wendy.

Rose is survived by her son, Ronald, her daughter-in-law, Francine Braunfeld, her grandchildren Shelley & Jeremy Sorkin, Alyssa & Louis Rosenthal, Amanda & Paul Levine, Melanie & Jeff Nodelman, her great grandchildren Samantha, Sophie & Jeffrey Sorkin, Max, Jason & Jessica Rosenthal, Ethan & Nathaniel Levine, Spencer & Dylan Nodelman, and numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Rose loved everybody she met and everybody that knew her loved her for her natural grace, generosity, selflessness and sweet demeanor. Her positive attitude radiated from her, and she will always be remembered for her sweet smile and loving heart. She was very dedicated and devoted to her family, especially her daughter, Wendy, who had special needs. Rose was very active in the community, and was a charter member and officer of the Order of Knights of Pythias, Bethpage Jewish Center and AHRC. She completely exemplified the Order of Knights of Pythias principles of "Friendship, Charity and Benevolence".

The family is appreciative of the care and commitment of the staff at Seven Acres Jewish Nursing Home. Graveside services were held at Beth David Cemetery on Long Island, NY. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations in Rose's memory be made to AHRC Nassau (www.ahrc.org), or to a charity of your choice.
