

Roslyn "Roz" Polakoff

December 3, 1930 - April 30, 2024

Roslyn "Roz" Polakoff passed away peacefully on April 30, 2024, at the age of 93 at The Legacy Midtown Park in Dallas, her caring home for the past 2 years. Roz was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Alvin Polakoff; her daughter, Deena Fay Polakoff; and her parents, Jack Miller and Ethel Dekoven Miller. She is survived by her son, Lee Adam Polakoff and numerous grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Born on December 3, 1930, in Chicago, Illinois. She and her husband "Dick" Polakoff settled in Skokie, Illinois where they raised their two children, Lee Adam and Deena Fay Polakoff. While in Skokie, she proudly noted that she was a top salesperson for magazines. They enjoyed their later years in West Palm Beach Florida and finally in Dallas. Roz was also an active volunteer and officer of The Jewish War Veterans Ladies Auxiliary.

Her favorite pastimes were stitching needlepoint on canvas and knitting afghans for her family. Her laughter, smiles, creativity, and humor will be remembered by all her loved ones.

Funeral services will be held graveside on Friday, May 3, 2024, 10:30 am at Sparkman Hillcrest Northwest Highway.

Donations in her memory may be made to Jewish War Veterans Ladies

Auxiliary in care of the Dallas JCC, 7900 Northaven Rd., Dallas, TX 75230.
