

Samuel Liezer Frydberg

May 28, 1948 - March 17, 2026

Samuel Frydberg, beloved father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, passed away on March 17, 2026, at the age of 77.

Born on May 28, 1948 in Munich Germany and grew up in Israel before moving to San Antonio, Tx and then finally Samuel made his home in Dallas, Texas, where he built a life grounded in family, tradition, and connection. He was previously married to Sara and remained deeply devoted to his family throughout his life.

Samuel was a loving father to his daughter, Ronit, and a proud grandfather to Andrew and Levi, as well as a cherished great-grandfather to Aliena. His family was the center of his world, and he took great joy in watching it grow across generations.

By trade, Samuel was a baker, a craft he practiced with dedication and pride. Outside of his work, he was known for his warm personality and playful charm—something of a flirt, he had a way of making people smile and feel at ease. He found deep meaning in his faith, enjoyed going to shul, and embraced his Jewish identity with pride and devotion.

Samuel will be remembered for his love of family, his lively spirit, and the joy he brought to those around him. His presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

A graveside funeral service will be held on March 20, 2026, at 11:30 a.m. at Temple Emanu-El Cemetery, 3430 Howell Road, Dallas, Texas. Family and friends are invited to attend and honor his life.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Samuel's memory to Autism Speaks (www.autismspeaks.org) or Friends of the Disabled (www.fdnw.org).

Samuel Frydberg's memory will forever live on in the hearts of his family and all who were fortunate to know him.
