

Sidney Lewis Brown

September 21, 1926 - August 10, 2020

Sidney Lewis Brown passed away peacefully from complications from pneumonia on August 10, 2020. He was 93 years old. Sidney Brown was born in Toronto Canada September 21, 1926 to Mary and Abraham Brown. He moved with his family to Miami and then found a permanent home in Houston. He became co owner of S.A.M office furniture company and with a flare for design he help furnished many of Houston's business establishments.

He was in a marriage of equals with Lorraine Josem Brown for almost 70 years.

Sid had a great sense of humor and an infectious laugh. Besides his deep love for Hershey chocolates, he was a huge boxing fan and loved a good prize fight. He spent many evenings with his family cracking up to the sarcastic jokes of Johnny Carson, Buddy Hackett, Don Rickles and Frank Sinatra. He loved spending time with family and friends at his beach house on Galveston Island.

Sid was very active in the Jewish Community continually supporting Jewish Family Service, Jewish Federation and the Jewish Community Center. He was a champion for the less fortunate, and had a work out ethic that continued well into his 90s. He was a past president of Congregation Brith Shalom.

Sid emigrated from Canada to Houston with almost nothing. He helped build a successful business by building relationships and making friends with everyone he dealt with.

He is survived by his wife Lorraine ,4 sons and their wives Joshua and Inette, Mitchell and Martha,Seth and Elizabeth and Christopher and Nora. In addition, 5 grandchildren Aaron, Jamie, Sacha, Joshua ,Evan and 6 great grandchildren Wyatt, Emmett, Jaydon, Taylor, Mae and Lucy. Sid is also survived by his younger brother Ray and his wife Roz. He is preceded in death by his brother Eddie and sweet sister Ruth.

The family has a special thanks to his caregivers Serinda, Joyce, Jackie, Orailia, Flora, Lucy, Christine and Blanca.

Donations can be made to Jewish Family Service of Houston or Austin or Congregation Brith Shalom.
