

Stanley Feig

In Loving Memory of Stanley Feig August 10, 1930 - December 8, 2018

Stanley Feig was born on August 10, 1930 to Yeudith and Menachem Feig. Stanley passed away December 8, 2018 at the age of 88 at his home in Houston, Texas. Stanley was the only member of his family to survive the Holocaust. He lost his parents, grandparents, 3 brothers and 2 sisters. He somehow survived and made his way to Israel in 1947, at the age of 17 and promptly joined the Israeli Army where he proudly served for 3 years.

At the age of 20 he met and fell for Renee Bankovski, the younger sister of one of his army friends. Three years later they married and three years after that they started working on building the family he longed for. His son Mark was born in 1956 and his daughter Judy in 1959.

Stanley moved his family to New York in 1967, after the happy discovery of some relatives there. Then, in 1980, he decided that Houston was the place to be in their continued pursuit of a better life.

Stanley happily worked for the Memorial Hospital System for 15 years. In 1995 he chose to retire. Shortly after his retirement he suffered a major stroke and while he did recover it was not a complete recovery. In the following years, he did his very best to take care of his family and maintain his household. It wasn't always easy, but he was never one to give up. Through sheer stubbornness and tenacity, he managed to do just that for the next 22 years.

Stanley is survived by his wife Renee, son Mark and daughter Judy, Mark's wife Cynthia and their three children Andrew, Benjamin, and Felicia. Judy's husband Benny and their two sons Jeremy and Zachary. Also, Andrew's wife Rachael and Felicia's husband Tanner and their two children Rilynn and Ayden.

Graveside service is to be held at 1:30pm, Thursday, December 13, 2018 at Beth Jacob Cemetery 2300 Almeda Genoa Rd. Houston, Tx. 77047

Tribute Wall

BL

“ I am so sorry for the loss of such a special man. May his memory be a blessing ”

Barbara and Robert Levy - December 13, 2018 at 12:10 AM