

Susan Carol Slotnick

April 27, 1944 - January 17, 2023

Susan Slotnick passed away peacefully on January 17, 2023 at the age of 78. Born to Rose and LeRoy Lischin, Sue grew up on the north side of Chicago with her brother Mel. She met the love of her life, Barry Slotnick, on a blind date and married him in 1964. Together they raised two children, Gary and Joan, who married the loves of their lives and made her the proud bubbe of four grandchildren: Austin, Ray, Ethan and Noah. After way too many Chicago winters, Sue and Barry migrated south to Plano, Texas in 1995, where they became a part of the welcoming Jewish community at Beth Torah. Sue and Barry loved traveling together to places where she could snorkel, soak up the sun and enjoy great food. She will be deeply missed by her family and dear friends.

Please join us for a graveside service in a celebration of Sue's life on Thursday, January 19th at 12:00pm. Services will be streaming: <https://view.oneroomstreaming.com/index.php?data=MTY3NDA4NjA4NTIzMTE0MyZvbmVyb29tLWVkbWluJmNvcHlfbGluaw==>

“ I can hear her voice. I can see her smile. I remember the many holidays we shared together, and other good times. When I ran for office, she was the key to introducing me to people in the Muslim community who became supporters and who remain friends to this day. Sue was a student in my father-in-law's high school biology class and the cousin of a college friend of mine. Our paths crossed so many ways over so many years. Blessed that they did, and for Barry's friendship as well.

“ We always felt happier after speaking to Sue. Her attitude was uplifting and positive and her warm sense of humor made us laugh out loud. Her memory will stay with us for a very long time. So glad she was in our lives. Love, Linda and Ed Matisoff
