

Walter Mendlovitz

May 25, 1949 - February 20, 2021

Walter Mendlovitz, 71, passed away on Saturday February 20, 2021. Walter was born on May 25, 1949 in Houston, Texas, to the late Manuel and Emily Mendlovitz. Walter was raised by, and was extremely close to his father, Manuel, as his mother passed away when Walter was only a little boy.

Those who knew him know that Walter was a kind, wise, and unique man. Walter was a lifelong businessman and entrepreneur. He learned how to run a business from his father at a young age spending time at his family's shoe store, Saks Shoes. At a young age, Walter started his own mail order shoe business and ultimately partnered with his wife, Jackie, successfully running other businesses. In his early life, Walter and Jackie found joy traveling the world together.

Walter was giving and good hearted and everyone around him loved him. Walter was well read and able to have an educated and interesting conversation about almost anything. For that reason, friends and family confided in Walter as their own personal "psychologist" and Walter helped many people make difficult decisions and navigate their lives. Walter was also a "foodie" who enjoyed all kinds of foods, but particularly condiments, which he was known to bring with him while dining out.

Walter was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife

Jackie, his cat Meeskeit, his dog, Pebbles, his close cousin Gary Baum (and family), Cousin David and Karen Bergman of Oklahoma, and many cousins and close friends, who were like family. All those who knew, and love Walter pray that he is with his dad, away from any pain. May his memory be a blessing for us all.

In lieu of memorial donations, the family requests that donations be made to St. Clouds Rescue, 8137 County Rd, McKinney Texas, 75071, <https://www.paypal.com/paypalme/stcloudsrescue>
