

Wolf Samuel Ozarow

May 12, 1994 - July 24, 2023

Wolf Samuel Ozarow died suddenly in New York City on July 24, 2023. He was born May 12, 1994, in Dallas, TX to Robert and Meaders Moore Ozarow.

He attended Booker T Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts, and Oklahoma City University where he received a BA in Communications. He was pursuing a successful career in the clothing industry in New York at the time of his death and was in a loving relationship.

The cause of death is undetermined currently.

Wolf was a precocious child with a broad vocabulary. He loved to tell stories and he loved his time in the theater. He was an active member in Temple Emanu-el while in Dallas and loved his friends and community there. He excelled on the Mock Trial team at Booker T., and the team won the Texas State competition and went on to the national competition in Philadelphia. He loved a good debate. He was an advocate for those less fortunate and was very committed to racial and gender equity. He would say he got his love of clothes and southern hospitality from his grandfather and his great sense of humor and love of NYC from his father.

He is survived by his parents, Robert and Meaders and his brother Taylor. He is also survived by his grandparents Portia and S.M. Moore, Jr. of Abilene, TX, his uncle and aunt, McDonald and Jamie Moore, his cousins Colin and Katherine Moore and Caldwell and Lexie Moore, and his girlfriend Lexy O'Hara of Great Neck, NY.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents Ruth and Vernon Ozarow.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Temple Emanu-El Susan Salom Clergy Good Works Fund.
