“ I’ve had knowing Yeva for nearly 50 years, and in all that time, one thing was always clear— she was an extraordinary person. Smart, kind, and endlessly caring, Yeva had a way of making everyone feel seen, valued, and loved.

Throughout the decades, I’ve collected countless beautiful memories of Yeva —moments filled with laughter, thoughtful conversations, quiet support, and undeniable devotion to family and friends. We got married at the same time, we had children at the same time and raised them together, we had hour-long conversations during Covid, we created so many unforgettable moments together that will stay with me forever. Whether it was a simple gesture of kindness or a wise word shared at just the right moment, she left unquestionable mark on my life.

Yeva’s strength of character, generous heart, and genuine warmth will never be forgotten. I will carry these memories with me always, and I feel deeply grateful to have shared so many years of my life with her.

Though the loss is enormous, the love and memories live on—in my heart, and in the hearts of all who were lucky enough to know Yeva.

May Yeva rest in peace, and may we find comfort in remembering a life so beautifully lived and a soul so deeply loved.
